

EGYPTIAN RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION

National Team Coach

1. Role

To establish and build a successful national team.

2. Responsible to

- The ERFU Board – the national team coach shall regularly report to the ERFU Board.

3. Functional relationships

- National team manager – coordinate to ensure that the national team is provided with the necessary equipment and support for training sessions and games.
- The national team captain – designated by the national team coach.
- The national team players – selected solely by the national team coach, who has full control of them at training and during games.
- PR manager – for media / promotional requirements.

4. Primary objectives

- To develop a successful national team.
- To develop and enhance the national team players.
- To instil pride in the national team.

5. Responsibilities

- Selection of the national team players.
- Nomination of the captain of the national team.
- To take a professional approach to the planning, preparation and organisation of training sessions - to establish a comprehensive schedule of training and to keep records of participation of national team players in training sessions.
- Be aware of rules and training techniques.
- In coordination with the national team manager, ensure that the necessary equipment is available for training and games.

- In coordination with the national team manager, set the national team standard with respect to dress, behaviour and general expectations.
- To ensure the safety of players in training sessions and during games.

6. Key result areas

- National team players' improvement.
  - National team results.
-