

- In coordination with the Women's National Team Manager, ensure that the necessary equipment is available for training and games.
- In coordination with the Women's National Team Manager, set the national team standard with respect to dress, behaviour and general expectations.
- To ensure the safety of players in training sessions and during games.

6. Key result areas

- 7 and 15s women's national team players' improvement.
 - 7s and 15s women's national team results.
-

EGYPTIAN RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION

Women's National Team Coach

1. Role

To establish and build successful 7s and 15s women's national teams.

2. Responsible to

- The ERFU Board – the Women's National Team Coach shall regularly report to the ERFU Board.

3. Functional relationships

- Women's National Team Manager – coordinate to ensure that the women's national team is provided with the necessary equipment and support for training sessions and games.
- The National Team Captains (for 7s and 15s) – designated by the Women's National Team Coach.
- The women's national team players – selected solely by the Women's National Team Coach, who has full control of them at training and during games.
- PR Manager – for media / promotional requirements.

4. Primary objectives

- To develop successful 7s and 15s national team.
- To develop and enhance the national team players.
- To instil pride in the 7s and 15s national teams.

5. Responsibilities

- Selection of the women's national team players for 7s and 15s.
- Nomination of the Captains of the Women's 7s and 15s national teams.
- To take a professional approach to the planning, preparation and organisation of training sessions - to establish a comprehensive schedule of training and to keep records of participation of national team players in training sessions.
- Be aware of rules and training techniques.